

Welcome to Cardston :)

Cardston Is a home for many young families and tons of senior citizens where people walk the creeks path with their dog on a nice fall day. There are many tourist attractions and lots of events that come up during all seasons. We would encourage you to come to our small town full of friendly smiles and warm welcomes. Everyone enjoys the town as there are mountains and hills and beautiful sunsets and sunrises.

GEOGRAPHY

Cardston, Alberta is 30 minutes away from the USA border and 30 minutes east of Waterton, Alberta where there are many mountains that you can hike and enjoy beautiful scenery that will leave you in awe. There is a creek with a beautiful bridge and trail that most residents walk daily. The number of trees and rolling hills relaxes the people. The grass is green in the summer, and we see the prettiest winters. Cardston, Alberta has been a wonderful place to settle down for years, centuries even. Cardston was also one of the first places out of the colonies to settle down in Canada.

PEOPLE

In Cardston, Alberta the people are diverse and willing to share their culture. Cardston is right beside one of the biggest reserves in Canada, Blood 148. Here in Cardston you will learn a lot about the First Nations culture like learning their dances and watching their princess pageants! There are also a lot of immigrants that come here for the nice peaceful town. Cardston is known to be a religious town. The population is a total of 3,348 so it is a nice sized town. The people are nice as well. Ask for directions are you will receive your answer.

ECONOMY

In Cardston there is a community of helpful and smart people like doctors and teachers and just nice people who will help with directions and tell you the best places to eat also will help you no matter what as well. Cardston has lots of sports and is really known for its community theater! Cardston is a very well-known place for religion practicing every Sunday and it is known as a calm day down here. Cardston has a few places to shop, well there is even a dollar store! Town council is trying to make Cardston the best they can.

ATTRACTIONS

Cardston has many attractions like the Fay Wray King Kong fountain the lady Fay Wray was from Cardston. She was really into acting and made it to the big screens. Cardston likes to respect her and show her praise by building a fountain in her name. Cardston has other things including the amazing shows that the community puts on for you, farmer markets, Pow-wows and lots of community family friendly things. The church of Jesus Christ has a temple that people all around take photos and see all of the time.

References:

<https://www.roadsideamerica.com/tip/26888>

<https://www.cardston.ca/>